ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hypocrite.

In his latest melodrama "Humanity," which is to be seen on Monday and Tuesday next week Sutton Vane presents some strong characters and scenes. The play has a military flavor, the central character being Bevis Cranbone, a Lieutenant in the British army. Two of the acts are laid in South Africa at the time of the Boer uprising, and there are several strong tableaux without the noise and confusion of a battle. The first act opens in Cranborne hall, where all are arraying for a fox hunt, in which occur ten thoroughbred horses and twenty-five hounds are seen. Sale of seats now open.

On Thursday and Friday, March 23 and 24 "A Gaiety Girl" will be presented. An exchange says: "Critics have vied with one another in the description of her charms, and from what can be gathered she is evidently a pretty glittering thing, is this Gaiety Girl, with an eye like a star, in the clear depths of which the hero can lose himself. You know the orb; it is the very epitome of the codfish eye. She has a dower-like face, which Mrs. Hungerford would call a "sweet" form and a high-bred refined manner.

"A Black Sheep" is coming soon.

Grand Opera House.

Sam T. Jack's Creole company opened a three night's engagement at the Grand opera house last evening. The large audience was kept continually in laughter by the funny sayings and doings of the company.

The program opens with a regular old-time minstrel part. The singing was excellent and thoroughly appreciated by those present.

Tom Brown in descriptive songs was good, as were the Mallory brothers in their musical efforts. The LaDance Electricians was a novelty and included some fine chorus singing. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh in their witticisms and medleys made a hit and succeeded in amusing all.

The entertainment closes with plantation pastimes, in which buck and wing dancing is indulged in to the satisfaction of all.

The company plays here to-night, to-morrow night and matinee to-morrow afternoon.

"Darkest Russia," which will be seen Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week, is one of the most attractive and pleasing of plays. From every hand comes the highest praise, and wherever produced large and enthusiastic audiences welcome this production.

Mr. Bunell announces the coming of the famous "Black Crook" Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 23, 24, 25.

"The Brownies" are still the rage, the public cannot forget them, and now in the lecture hall annex at the Grand opera house a very fine working model of "The Brownies" is now on exhibition. The hall is free to the patrons of the house.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.

Zenora and Foden, the phenomenal hand balancers, have created a veritable sensation at the Wonderland with their unique performance. The five Pardoos create the liveliest interest with their reckless breakneck bicycle riding, and amuse everyone when they introduce their three-year-old clown, the youngest and liveliest funmaker in the world. Watson and Hutchings please and amuse with their jolly German comedy, and Alonso Hatch interests with his sweet ballads and stereoscopic illustrations. The LaPorte sisters, Miss Myrtle Tressider, the Murray brothers, and the other bright stars on the bill, keep the interest and amusement sustained. For next week Mlle Eugene Petrescue is announced, fresh from her triumphs of five months at Koster & Bial's in New York. While playing there press, public and physicians were mystified over Mlle Petrescue, and all agreed that she is, indeed, a wonder.

PAPER BY CAPTAIN PHIPPS.

The monthly meeting of the society will be held in Colonial hall on Monday evening, March 25, at 8 o'clock. A paper will be read by Captain D. C. Phipps on "Personal Reminiscences of the Navy, and Naval Battles in the Days of Sailing Ships." After the reading there will be an address of the Navy, and Naval Battles in the days of Sailing Ships.

The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at his late residence on Whalley avenue. The body will be taken to Naugatuck for burial.

News From Admiral Meade.

Washington, March 21.—A cablegram was received at the navy department to-day from Admiral Meade announcing the arrival of his squadron, the New York, Minneapolis and Cincinnati, at San Domingo. From that port the squadron will go to Port au Prince, Hayti, and from there to Santiago, Cuba.

Was a Yale Man.

Henry Coppee, LL. D., acting president of Lehigh university, who died yesterday at Bethlehem, Pa., of heart disease, aged seventy-four, was in the class of '39 at Yale and graduated at West Point in 1845. He was breveted captain for gallant and meritorious conduct in the Mexican war.

ANOTHER LARGE FUNERAL.

Burial Services of Julius Herrmann—Impressive Services at the Court Street Temple.

The funeral of Julius Herrmann was held yesterday afternoon. Prayers were said at his late residence on Orange street at 1:30 and the public funeral service was held at the Court street temple at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Levy officiated. The temple was filled to overflowing with sorrowing friends of the deceased, included among which were a large number of the prominent Germans of this city. Among the societies represented were Canton Aurora in uniform, who marched to the church, headed by the American band, Connecticut Rock lodge, F. and A. M. Schiller lodge, K. of P. Humboldt lodge, L. O. O. F. the Seven Wise Men, the New Haven Turn Verein, the Arion Singing society, the German Aid society, the United Brotherhood of New York, and the Brotherhood of the Holy Spirit, the German Aid society, the United Brotherhood of New York, and the Brotherhood of the Holy Spirit.

Deborah lodge, D. of R. The floral and other tributes were very numerous and included a standing heart inscribed "Husband" from the wife of the deceased, a pillow inscribed "Papa," a sheaf of wheat, a wreath of roses, cypress leaves, etc. There was also a beautiful broken column from the brother of deceased, who resides in New York city. The funeral was in the charge of Connecticut Rock lodge. The burial was in the Jewish cemetery in Westville. Mr. Theodore Keller was the undertaker in charge. The bearers were all members of Connecticut Rock lodge. Among the prominent people at the funeral were Selectman Bretzfelder, ex-Selectman Hillman, Paul Well, M. Zunder, Abe Heberger, Colonel Bohan, Henry Buchter, Michael Hessler, Charles Schenck, John B. Freytag, ex-Town Clerk Philip Hugo, Arthur R. Spleen, David Strauss, Henry Fresenius, John McCarthy, John Wolf.

March 21.—General E. D. S. Goodyear went to Hartford on Tuesday. The general seems to think the doings of the legislature might become dull if he did not go to stir them up occasionally.

The report that Mr. William N. Owen has sold his farm is not true. A man has been asked at the place and wanted to buy it, but on looking around Mr. Owen did not find any place that he preferred to his own, and not caring to leave North Haven just yet will probably stay where he is for the present.

H. O. Divine has an engagement in Catskill, N. Y., and will leave for his duties there some time in April. Mr. Divine's place is for sale.

A. N. Farnham was in town on Tuesday visiting peach orchards and strawberry growers. Mr. R. W. Smith escorted Mr. Farnham with his handsome colts.

Mrs. Ernest Warner of Holyoke, Mass., is the guest of Mr. J. W. Tuttle and her husband's brother, F. A. Warner.

The relations and friends of Mr. Orrin Mansfield were pained to hear of his death, which occurred at Sherwood, Wis., on March 12, 1898. Mr. Mansfield was born in North Haven in the house where L. F. Mansfield's dwelling now stands. He worked at the blacksmith business in a little shop north of George Gilbert's place of business. Mr. Mansfield built and owned the house where Mr. Robert Smith now lives, and lived there until forty years ago, when he left with his family, consisting of his wife, two daughters and one son, and settled in Sherwood, where he had since lived. Mr. Mansfield was eighty-three years old and died of pneumonia.
